

Back by Popular Demand!

The Georgia Commission on Family Violence (GCFV) is offering training to mental health clinicians interested in providing support to survivors of domestic violence homicide and murder-suicide.

RESTORATIVE RETELLING GRIEF SUPPORT FACILITATOR TRAINING

Clinicians will be:

- Trained in the Restorative Retelling Model
- Given the opportunity to apply to join the Murder-suicide Response Network
- Given the opportunity to be paid as a Support Group Facilitator
- Placed on an exclusive list of providers recommended for counseling to survivors of murder-suicide in Georgia.

Free Training & CEU Opportunities:

Group D

Virtual Session

Fridays, 1:30-3:30 PM

September 30, 2022 -

December 9, 2022

Application Deadline: September 9th

Group E

Virtual Session

Fridays, 1:30 - 3:30 PM

January 27, 2023 -

March 24, 2023

Application Deadline: December 9th

Acceptance into the training and/or network is by competitive online application. Applications are open now!

Georgia Commission on Family Violence

For additional information contact:
Kylee Elliott, SSMS Project Coordinator
kylee.elliott@dcs.ga.gov