About the Conference

Batterers are not born they are socialized into a culture of male dominance and patriarchy against women. This training will focus on the socialization of men by examining the social norms, culture and traditional images of manhood that has created an environment that supports, tolerates and often encourages men's violence against women. During the workshop providers will gain insight into the construct of sexism and develop skills to challenge the privileges and entitlements given to men.

Who Should Attend:

This training is for family violence facilitators, LPC's, LCSW, SA Counselors, and others interested in increasing their effectiveness with male clients.

Continuing Education Credits of 6 hours have been applied for through GCFV and IC&RC and GACA certification boards.

Tuition: $70.00

Pre-registration is required. Tuition fee covers the cost of instruction, handout materials, refreshments

Learning Objectives

By the end of the training, participants will be able to:

1. Examine the intergenerational transmission of family violence
2. Discuss the dark side of masculinity
3. Explore the impact of socialization on males and the family violence connection
4. Describe traditional male beliefs and family violence
5. Integrating sexual abuse into your domestic violence program.
