Men At Work: Building Safe Communities Curriculum Training June 12th – 14th, 2019

Men Stopping Violence is pleased to announce its new curriculum: Men At Work: Building Safe Communities. Men At Work is an innovative and multi-disciplinary curriculum that: explores male violence against women in an accessible manner; challenges men to take responsibility for their actions; and provides the educational experience necessary to become allies in ending violence against women. In this three-day training, we will provide participants with the knowledge and tools needed to implement Men At Work. Join us in Atlanta for three days of transformation!

When & Where

The training will be held at Men Stopping Violence's training room, and will begin on June 12th at 9:00 a.m. and end on June 14th at 6:15 p.m. Please arrange your travels accordingly.

What You Will Receive

- Men At Work Instructors' Manual
- Men At Work Students' Manual
- Men At Work Facilitation Training
- Men At Work Curriculum Implementation Training

This training has been approved by the Georgia Commission on Family Violence for 20 FVIP hours.

Feedback from past training participants:

"The instructors were amazing, interesting, informative, insightful, and engaging. I didn't want to leave. I didn't want to stop participating and I would love to do more trainings with these guys. Very eye opening."

"This training was fantastic. The MSV approach is so thoughtful and respectful and impactful for our communities."

Training Cost

$495: Includes three-day training, a student's manual, and an instructor's manual.
