About the Conference

One of the major goals of family violence intervention programs is assisting perpetrators in accepting full responsibility and accountability for their abusive actions. Most perpetrators' explanations of abuse promote an avoidance of responsibility. In order to accept responsibility, the perpetrator must fully acknowledge the existence and significance of the abuse and understand the potential impact of his abusive actions upon the victim and others. He must accept and become accountable for his actions and bear the full onus for ceasing his abuse and changing his behavior.

This workshop will help Family Violence Intervention Facilitators in providing psychoeducational experiences that assist perpetrators in developing accountability for their behaviors and taking responsibility for ceasing and changing their abusive behaviors.

Who Should Attend:

Family Violence Facilitators, Addiction Professionals, LPCs, LCSW, and FV Shelter Personnel.

Continuing Education Credits of 6 hours have been applied for through GCFV, GACA, and IC&RC.

Learning Objectives

1. Describe some of the myths that prevent accountability among perpetrators.
2. Defining accountability and responsibility.
3. Describe batterers belief system and behaviors that inhibit them from accepting accountability.
4. Explain patterns of thinking and behavior of non-accountable perpetrators.
5. Facilitating belief system and behavioral change in perpetrators.
6. Helping perpetrators move from causal explanation to accountability explanations for their behaviors.
7. Strategies for accountability building with perpetrators.

Tuition: $85.00

Pre-registration is required. Tuition fee covers the cost of instruction, handout materials, refreshments breaks, and continuing education credits.
